

Benefits of Hiring Veterans into Your Registered Apprenticeship Program

Registered Apprenticeship programs can increase employee retention and support development of leadership and technical skills among staff. As an employer seeking qualified candidates for your workforce, consider getting your Registered Apprenticeship program approved for GI Bill® benefits and becoming a veteran-ready organization.

ABOUT REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP

Registered Apprenticeship is a high-quality career pathway where employers can prepare their future workforce while apprentices obtain paid work experience with a mentor, classroom instruction, and earn progressive wage increases and portable, nationally recognized credentials. Industry-vetted, Registered Apprenticeships are approved and validated by the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) or a State Apprenticeship Agency (SAA).

If you are new to the Registered Apprenticeship program, there are multiple resources to help you build, register, and launch your program. Regardless of where you are on your apprenticeship journey, the DOL is here to help!

WHY REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP?
