PURPOSE: To provide Office of Apprenticeship Training, Employer and Labor Services (OATELS), Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training (BAT) staff with revised Group Joint (GJ) National Guideline Standards.

BACKGROUND: The Group Joint National Guideline Standards have been revised so that they are consistent in form and content with existing policy and practices for the registration of National apprenticeship programs.

These Standards include as Appendices: an Occupation Schedule for documentation of work processes and related instruction, ETA 671 – Apprenticeship Agreement, a Sample Affirmative Action Plan which includes an Analysis Worksheet, and a sample Qualification and Selection Procedure.

ACTION: OATELS/BAT staff should familiarize themselves with these revised National Guideline Standards. BAT staff should begin using these standards immediately for all future development of new and revised program standards.
