In all manner of areas – from dribbles to passes to duels won – his numbers per 90 are up compared to last season, although one in particular stands We're going to bring everything for it and, in the end, we will see how much it's worth, winning the game on Friday.

It is not known if he will be fit for Scotland's World Cup play-off semi-final with Ukraine - likely to be played in June - as Steve Clarke's side aim to qualify for their first edition of the global tournament since 1998. Today, I saw the heart of my players, the passion, the will to fight, the will to sacrifice, to understand this was a very difficult moment for us, he said after the game.

Among the nations to have failed to progress from the second round are Togo, South Africa, Gabon and Ivory Coast. On top of that we have three new Covid cases in the team and a few more in the staff so it's not so cool in the moment, said Klopp.
