2024 Paris Olympic Games: Complete schedule with TV, time and streaming for every event

The 2024 Paris Olympic Games will see the world's best athletes on the biggest stage competing for their country. The anticipation is palpable as we inch closer to the world games, with excitement growing every day.

The Summer Olympics, a celebration of diversity and sportsmanship, will see over 10,500 athletes from 206 countries, with an equal number of male and female participants, according to the IOC. They will compete in 45 different sports, with 41 considered traditional Olympic events.

The 2024 Paris Olympic Games will introduce breaking, also known as breakdancing, as a new sport, and for those who remember the thrill, bring back skateboarding, sport climbing and surfing for their second Olympic appearance.

Here is a day-to-day schedule from July 24 to August 11 to ensure that you do not miss any of the action at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.

When is the 2024 Paris Olympic Games opening ceremony?

The 2024 Paris Olympics opening ceremony will take place on July 26 to mark the start of the Summer Games in Paris along the Seine River. However, some sporting events like soccer and rugby will already have begun due to the length of the schedule.
